CALIFORNIA'S HIDDEN GEMS

Great wines begin with a sense of place, and this month, we're excited to share five new brands that deliver exactly that. After tasting through numerous lots from some of California's most respected growing regions, we've curated a collection that stands out for both quality and character. From the world-renowned vineyards of Napa Valley and Oakville to the cool coastal influences of the Russian River Valley, Santa Lucia Highlands, and Central Coast, these selections express the distinct environments in which they are grown.

Turk, Carium Estates, Bello, Kallan Vintners, and Orinda Hayes are exciting new additions that represent a range of varietals and styles, all while maintaining a shared commitment to excellence. Beyond their pedigree and craftsmanship, we believe these wines offer exceptional value. Best of all, these bottles are exclusive to Bristol Farms, giving our guests access to labels not available elsewhere. We are thrilled to bring these discoveries directly to you, and hope you enjoy drinking them as much as we enjoyed finding them.
