PEAKE RANCH VINEYARDS

Peake Ranch Vineyards is a winery located in the Sta. Rita Hills AVA, which is a cool-climate region in Santa Barbara County, California. The vineyard was established in 2014 by John and Gillian Wagner and was named after their beloved dog, Peake. The winery produces high-quality wines from Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Syrah, and Grenache grapes that are grown across 50 acres of vines. Their winemaker, Paul Lato, is a former sommelier who has been making wines in California since 2002.

Peake Ranch Vineyards is known for crafting elegant and expressive wines that reflect the terroir of the region. Their vineyard has seven different clones of Pinot Noir, three clones of Chardonnay, two of Syrah, and two of Grenache. The wines are aged in French oak barrels and have varying degrees of new oak depending on the varietal and vintage.

Peake Ranch Vineyards is a gorgeous winery that offers a taste of paradise in the heart of Santa Barbara County. Nestled among rolling hills and lush vineyards, the winery boasts a stunning tasting room that overlooks the picturesque landscape. Visitors can enjoy a variety of wines ranging from crisp and refreshing Chardonnays to rich and complex Pinot Noirs, all crafted by talented winemaker, Paul Lato. Peake Ranch Vineyards is more than just a winery — it is a destination for wine lovers who appreciate quality, beauty, and hospitality.

PEAKE RANCH CHARDONNAY, SANTA BARBARA

REG $37.99 SPECIAL $35.99

Peake Ranch Chardonnay showcases the elegance and complexity of Chardonnay grapes that are grown in the cool-climate region of Santa Barbara County. The wine is fermented and aged in French oak barrels, resulting in varying degrees of new oak that depend on the vineyard and vintage. The oak adds richness, texture, and a slight toastiness to the wine, yet still preserves the freshness and minerality of the fruit. The wine has a pale, golden color and a complex nose of citrus blossom, white pineapple, crème brûlée, stone fruits, dried flowers, and lemongrass. The palate is full-bodied with a creamy mouthfeel, crisp acidity, and a long finish. When it comes to flavor, expect layered and balanced notes of pear, peach, almond, honey, and lemon. Peake Ranch Chardonnay is an ideal choice for classic Chardonnay lovers. This wine truly reflects both the terroir of Santa Barbara County and the craftsmanship of Peake Ranch Winery. Enjoy it on its own or pair it with seafood, poultry, cheese, or pasta. Peake Ranch Chardonnay is a wine that will delight you with its finesse and flavor.
