— BRISTOL FARMS WINE & SPIRITS CATEGORY BUYER SHARES HER MONTHLY FEATURED BRAND —

As we embrace the warmth of June, there's no better time to celebrate whiskey—a timeless spirit that embodies craftsmanship and tradition. Whiskey has been cherished across the globe for its complexity, depth, and rich history. Its origins date back centuries, with ancient roots in Ireland and Scotland. Today, whiskey is a category rich in style, tradition, and expressive regional character.

From the smooth, honeyed notes of Irish whiskey to the smoky, peaty flavors of Scotch, whiskey reflects the land and climate of where it's crafted. In the United States, Kentucky bourbon offers sweet, caramelized flavors with hints of vanilla and oak, while Tennessee whiskey uses a unique charcoal mellowing process that imparts a distinct smoothness. Rye whiskey—with its spicy, robust profile—is another American classic, beloved for its bold character.

Whether you're savoring it neat, on the rocks, or in a classic cocktail like an Old Fashioned or Manhattan, whiskey invites you to pause, enjoy, and celebrate craftsmanship in every sip.
